

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

There is already too much "shaping" of the news by big business. PLEASE don't allow this mess to get worse. Mega-concerns such as AOL should not be in the cable ownership business at all!!!
